CASE OF BENTON, CHARGED WITH KILLING HIS NEPHEW.

A Singular and Distressing Acci-Murder Trials-Repairing Damage Caused by the Late Floods.

GATE CITY, VA., April 9 .- (Special.)-Barlow Benton, a hitherto high-standing citizen, who two weeks ago shot and killed his nephew, Sonny Williams, in the lower end of the county, was given a preliminary hearing Tuesday and returned to jail to await an indictment by the grand jury. He was originally placed in jall by a commission of hinacy, but the justices failed to seal their verdict, and the Commonwealth's Attorney felt it to be his duty to take the case in

To-day Benton attempted suicide in jail by gashing his throat with a suspender ckle and afterwards striking his head against the walls of his cell. He was unconscious for several hours and is in critical condition. He will probably die A SAD ACCIDENT.

W. T. Watkins, an energetic young man of this county, but temporarily residing just across the line, in Tennessee, met with a sad misfortune recently. He was taking a raft of timber down Holston was taking a raft of timber down Holston river, and in attempting to cable the raft had his hand caught in the rope and cut off. NEWPORT NEWS.

German-Wild-McAllister Marringe-Personals and Briefs. NEWPORT NEWS, April 9 .- (Special.)-

By far one of the most thoroughly enjoyable social events of the season in Newport News was the german at the Casino last night, tendered by the young gentlemen of the city to the government force of draughtsmen at the ship-yard their lady friends. The ship-yard gentlemen gave a german on the occa-sion of the double launching here in January, and last night the recipients of the honors on that occasion returned the compliment. The beauty and refine-ment of Newport News, as well as of adjacent Virginia and other cities, were present, and tripped the light fantastic until the wee sma' hours this morning. WEDDING.

Mr. Francis K. Wild, Jr., and Miss Lama McAllister were united in mar-riage last night at the residence of Mr. E. Christian. Rev. George W. Wray, of the Methodist church, very impressively performed the marriage ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Christian tendered the newlydded couple a reception after the ptial knot had been tied. The bride d groom are from Wilmington, Del-o latter having been employed in this city for the past few months. CLARK'S CASE.

The case of George Clark, the young white man charged with attempting to criminally assault Lauretta Wellington, the daughter of an actress, will be called the daughter of an acress, win be called at the next term of the Corporation Court, which begins on Monday, with Judge T. J. Barham on the bench. The case was called last session, but the defendant and none of the witnesses could be found. Marriage at Guancock-A Large Attendance.

ONANCOCK, VA., April 9.-(Special.)-The Presbyterian church in this town was filled to overflowing this morning by an interested assemblage to witness the marriage of Miss Jennie West to Mr John Harmanson Kilman. Both bride and groom have resided here from earliest youth, and both are deservedly popular. The church was tastefully decorated with evergreens and potted plants. The ushers were: Stuart K. Powell, Dr. Louis J. Harmanson, Thomas S. Hopkins, and Edward F. Custis. Miss Emma West, the bride's younger sister, was maid of honor, and Mr. Edward E. Miles, Onancock's popular postmaster, was the groom's best man. Miss Margaret Groten presided at the organ. The ceremony was impressivethe marriage of Miss Jennie West to Mr man. A Dwelling Burned-A War Bible Re-

SCOTTSVILLE, VA., April 9.—(Special.) A fire destroyed the residence and all the household goods of Mr. Nat. Smith. of this county, on Monday night. It said that a considerable amount of money was also burned in the building. There was no insurance, as far as known.

A remarkable occurrence took place here recently. A short time ago out postmaster received a letter from the proprietor of the New York Critic, inquiring if such a person as John T. Blair, or any of his family, was residing here. The letter was turned over to Mrs. M. M. Blair, of our town, who replied to it giving the desired information.

CAPE CHARLES, VA., April 9.—(Special.)—Considerable excitement has prevailed throughout Northampton county during the last few weeks in anticipation of the election which was held to-day to decide whether or not intoxicating liquors shall be licensed after May 1st, at which time the present license expires. The election passed off quietly; and, as far as can be learned to-night the result is largely in favor of license. Cape is largely in favor of license. Cape Charles gives forty-eight majority for license. The liquor-dealers are jubilant to-night over their victory.
